New Location Sought for Baby Clinic

Efforts to locate a suitable building to house the County Well-Baby Clinic are being made now by the board of directors of the Carson Chamber of Commerce, it was disclosed at Monday night's board meeting.

The clinic formerly held at the Catskill School, was moved recently into Compton because of crowded conditions at the school. Similarly crowded quarters in Compton are threatening the existence of the clinic, it has been reported.

Because the county is short of funds, a building must be provided from outside financing. The Carson Chamber is planning to rent a building and turn it over to the clinic, it was reported.

Plans for a spring carnival to be held after school closes for the summer were revealed at the meeting. Proceeds from the event would be used to finance summer youth activities.
